

THIRTY-THREE MANIFESTATIONS OF FEAR

MICHAEL MILIC

This was given to me over the course of a day; the Spirit speaking in my ear, exposing the manifestations of fear to me.

WHAT WOULD I DO IF I WERE NOT AFRAID?

To move in a different direction is to not be afraid of change!

The fear of the darkness ahead is to lack understanding.

Fear is faith in death; faith is trusting in life.

The spirit of fear will not allow the one trapped by it to move.

Not moving is fear; standing is faith.

As much as things can go wrong, things can go right.

If you fear change, you will be the one most affected by it when it comes.

The spirit of fear rejects humility and trust; it is always found with false humility.

The spirit of fear finds a friend in the heart of lies.

The spirit of fear disguises itself with lies.

Wherever the word of God does not abide, there is always fear.

If the spirit of fear is present, there is no peace.

The origins of fear are in the emotions whereas the fear of the Lord is an impartation of spirit.

Fear will not protect if its origins are not in the Lord.

Fear is a weight that even the strongest fail to carry.

Fear takes away spiritual sight.

Where fear is, confusion reigns.

Fear causes its victim to look to the future with uncertainty but faith is always in the now.

Fear has opportunities in a pay-less life.

Fear prolonged in a person's life fills it with defects but a man of purpose will keep his vessel intact.

Fear separates but faith brings us together.

Fear sows its seeds on the path of anger.

To fear, everything is impossible; to God, all things are possible.

Where fear is, there can be no faith.

Fear has many triggers in the heart but all of them are lies.

Fear is often seen in reaction.

Where fear is, there is no love.

Fear is the strength of pride.

Fear stops growth.

Fear is always concentrated on failure.

Fear needs continual reassurance.

Fear brings poverty.
